The Prophets

The lives of many prophets are outlined in the Bible. All of them were fore runners of Christ. A prophet simply means someone who speaks the truth of God. While there were times when the prophets foretold the “future”, the primary role of the prophet was to speak on God behalf.

Esther was one such prophet. At a time when the Jews were to be destroyed, Esther risked her own life to speak on God’s behalf and save her people. She is a woman of courage and faith.

Elijah is another one of the great prophets. When there was no one left who believed and trusted in God, Elijah’s faith did not waiver.

We are all called to be prophets. We are prophets whenever we speak God’s truth; whenever we stand up for the poor and unheard; whenever we denounce an injustice.

Each of us is called to speak God’s truth. How are you called?
